Submitted to His Highness.

The accompanying papers relate to the formation of a Constituent Assembly Office.

The elections to the Mysore Constituent Assembly are under way and the first meeting of the Assembly is tentatively fixed to be held on the 2nd April 1948. The question of appointing an officer and setting up an office to deal with the work relating to the Constituent Assembly has therefore to be examined urgently. The assistance necessary to Government as well as to the Members of the Assembly in the form of books or other relevant literature, accommodation, reporting correspondence, etc., have all to be arranged in time before the date of the meeting.

The Constituent Assembly has to function as long as the Assembly itself is in session and for some time thereafter until the Constitutional Bill becomes law and elections are held thereunder. Whether it should be wound up thereafter or got converted into or merged in the Legislature Office under the new Constitution are matters which may be examined at the appropriate time.

When the formulation of proposals for Constitutional Reform in the State was under consideration early last year, a Reforms Officer with a suitable staff was appointed to assist the Dewan. Mr. B.S. Puttaswami was appointed Reforms Officer and a staff consisting of a Personal Assistant, two First Division Clerks, two Second Division Clerks, one Stenographer and six Peons, was also sanctioned on a temporary basis.

Whether, in the altered circumstances, the Reforms Officer may be placed in charge of the Constituent Assembly Office and whether the staff now working under him may be asked to work in the Constituent Assembly Office or any other arrangements may be made, was considered at a meeting of Council held on 3rd March 1948 when the following resolution was
